

A blue spiral-bound notebook with a silver metal spiral binding at the top. The cover is a solid, textured blue color. The text is centered on the cover.

Conscience

Significance of Christian Sexual Ethics on the life of believers

Moral Decision Making

- A Christian is called to follow their conscience when making a moral decision.
- There is a responsibility on Christians to ensure that their conscience is "informed"

The Informed Conscience

- A Christian would consider the following when informing his/her conscience
  - Any relevant Bible passages
  - The Church's Teaching
  - Natural Law (A mainly Catholic concept)

Significance

- Christians are required to live "moral lives"
- Ignoring the "authorities" of the church, or going against your conscience is a "sin"